

Based on actions of Sinclair Broadcasting I am now totally opposed to consolidation of major media markets to a few owners. I think the FCC has unwittingly done a dis-service to America by allowing media consolidation. The negative effects are now being realized. I ask that the FCC to reconsider their actions for the good of all America and the quality of non-partisan information and programming.

James M. King